

Library Cards

The Hussey-Mayfield Library, as part of the Evergreen Indiana Library Consortium, offers a variety of cards to individuals using the Hussey-Mayfield Memorial Public Library.

Identification Required to Apply for Any Library Card

Library Cards are available to qualified applicants. Applicants under the age of 18 require the written approval of a parent or legal guardian who comes to the Library with the minor. A photo ID of the adult applicant or the parent/guardian of applicants under age 18 with a correct street address or post office box address, when applicable, must be presented at the time of application. [No information from this ID will be retained or copied by Library staff.]

TYPES OF LIBRARY CARDS

EVERGREEN INDIANA RESIDENT CARD

There is no direct charge for the Resident Card. The Public Library is supported through local residents' payment of income and property taxes.

Individuals eligible for this card include:

- all residents of Zionsville, Eagle, and Union Townships, and
- property owners who own real estate in Zionsville, Eagle, or Union Townships, but do not live in the Library District.

HUSSEY-MAYFIELD LIBRARY ISSUED TEMPORARY RESIDENT CARD

There is no charge for the Temporary Resident Card. This card will automatically expire one year from the date of issue, or be deleted if the cardholder moves from the Library District during the year.

Individuals eligible for this card include:

- residents who are living in the Library District for a period of less than 1 year, or
- foreign exchange students living in the Library District.

HUSSEY-MAYFIELD LIBRARY ISSUED NONRESIDENT CARD

There is a charge for the Nonresident Card.¹ This card will automatically expire 1 year from the issue date.

An individual eligible for this card includes:

- a person who is not a resident, property owner or temporary resident in any library district. This individual resides in a geographic area of Indiana that is not served by any public library.

The charge for this card is an annual fee determined by a formula developed by the Indiana General Assembly. This charge will cover the card cost for service for one family member. There is an extra charge per card that may be issued to any additional individual residing in the same household.

HUSSEY-MAYFIELD LIBRARY ISSUED BOONE COUNTY NONRESIDENT CARD

There may be a charge² for the Boone County Nonresident Card, depending on the contract between the Library Board and the Township Trustee. This card will automatically expire 1 year from the issue date.

An individual eligible for this card includes:

- a person who is a resident, property owner or temporary resident of a township in Boone County, Indiana that is not currently served by one of the three Boone County public libraries [Zionsville, Lebanon, and Thorntown] and whose Township Trustee has entered into a contract with the Board of the Hussey-Mayfield Library to provide library service to the township.

HUSSEY-MAYFIELD ISSUED STUDENT CARD

This card allows the holder, a nonresident student enrolled in a nonpublic school that is located at least in part in the Hussey-Mayfield Memorial Public Library district. This card allows the holder to borrow materials only from the Hussey-Mayfield Memorial Public Library. There is no charge for this card.

¹ Information about the current cost of a Nonresident Card is available at the Circulation Desks at the Library and on the Library's website.

² Information about the current cost of a Boone County Nonresident Card is available at the Circulation Desks at the Library and on the Library's website.

PUBLIC LIBRARY ACCESS CARD (PLAC)

This card allows the holder to use any public library in the State for a full 12 months. A new annual fee³ is set by the State Library and is effective each year on January 1. This card is authorized by the Indiana General Assembly.

Individuals eligible for this card include:

- any individual holding a valid library card at a Public Library in the State of Indiana, including resident and non-resident Library cards.

HUSSEY-MAYFIELD LIBRARY ISSUED PLAC HOLDER'S CARD

This card is extended to persons who have already purchased a Public Access Library Card, which is available to Indiana residents who live in an area with library service or who have purchased a nonresident card from a public library. There is no charge for the PLAC Holder's card. This card automatically expires one year after the date the Public Library Access Card was purchased through the State Library system. .

Individuals eligible for this card include:

- an individual who holds a valid library card from another public library district and has purchased a Public Library Access Card [PLAC].

HUSSEY-MAYFIELD LIBRARY ISSUED COMPUTER USE ONLY CARD

There is no charge for the Computer Use Only Card. This card will automatically expire 1 year from the issue date.

An individual eligible for this card includes:

- a person who is not a resident, property owner or temporary resident of the Hussey-Mayfield Memorial Public Library district and who would like to use the Library's public access computers. The card does not grant any borrowing privileges.

³ Information about the current cost of a PLAC is available at the Circulation Desks at the Library and on the Library's website.